SKIING Colorado is great. And expensive ski resorts like Beaver Creek offer amazing experiences —where else do escalators transport skiers slope-side? But it costs a small fortune ($70 lift tickets, $400 rooms).

Until now.

Spring-savvy skiers can experience the resort's final week, April 4-11, for less. The Charter, a five-minute walk from the slopes, has cozy rooms and condos with rustic log-cabin style beds, Ralph Lauren-esque decor, friendly service, free shuttles, ski valet health spa — and doable prices.

Lodge rooms at $119 per night sleep four with two beds. Condos at $189 per night sleep four with a one bedroom, a pull-out,
